

Professionals Gather for The Georgia Leadership Conference

This statewide conference focuses on the sharing and promoting of leadership excellence skills in the Georgia area.

ATLANTA— August 23, 2011 – The 2nd Annual Georgia Diversity & Leadership Conference, which will be held September 29th in Atlanta, affords professionals the opportunity to strengthen their leadership skills, network and build lasting relationships.

“The Georgia Leadership Conference is a wonderful opportunity for Georgia to gain knowledge and skills from some of its very own leaders.” said Dennis Kennedy, Founder and CEO of the National Diversity Council.

This year's theme is "Leadership First: Spearheading Advancement". Competent leadership skills are imperative for individuals who strive to have upward mobility in their chosen career fields. A company's development also relies heavily in its ability to effectively equip its leaders.

The conference will consist of over 12 excellent sessions, which are designed so that every attendee may obtain valuable information to help them grow as leaders. The conference will also feature nationally known keynote speaker Donna Brazile.

Awards will also be presented at the conferences for the Most Powerful and Influential Women of Georgia, Multicultural Leadership, and Leadership Excellence.
