

Professionals attend Women in Leadership Symposium hosted by the Georgia Diversity Council

Panelists of the Georgia Women in Leadership Symposium

The Georgia Diversity Council hosted their Annual Women in Leadership Symposiums at the Georgia Public Broadcasting Studios in Atlanta on April 11, 2013. The half-day event brought together a panel of female executives, who shared their success stories in regards to climbing the “corporate ladder” with a diverse audience of professional women. The theme of this year’s symposium was “Women in Leadership: Rising Above the Ordinary.”

“The symposium was held to help women across all industries grow in their knowledge of leadership and career advancement techniques”, said Dennis Kennedy, CEO and

Founder of the Georgia Diversity Council.

The event opened with a period where the attendees could network with each other, allowing some of Georgia’s business elite to make invaluable cross-industry contacts. The symposium began immediately following the networking session.

Topics addressed by the panelists included “Establishing Credibility in the Workplace,” “Winning at the Game of Office Politics,” “Perceptions of Assertive Women”, “Cross Cultural Leadership,” and “Overcoming Workplace Barriers.” The discussions allowed attendees to gather a wealth of knowledge, experience, and expertise from top female executives, who shared the personal and professional challenges they faced in their careers.

The Georgia Diversity Council would like to thank the sponsors and panelists for helping to make this year’s Women in Leadership Symposium a rousing success.
