

Professionals attend Women in Leadership Symposiums hosted by the Tri-State Diversity Council

Panelists from the Connecticut, New Jersey and New York Women in Leadership Symposiums

The Tri-State Diversity Council hosted their Fourth Annual Women in Leadership Symposiums in Connecticut, New York, and New Jersey on March 6th, 7th and 9th, 2013 respectively. The half-day event brought together a panel of female executives, who shared their success stories in regards to climbing the “corporate ladder” with a diverse audience of professional women. The theme of this year’s symposium was “Women Leaders as Architects of Change.”

“The symposium was held to encourage dialogue among individuals seeking to advance in their careers and promote the exchange of ideas and knowledge”, said Dennis

Kennedy, CEO and Founder of the Tri-State Diversity Council.

The event opened with a period where the attendees could network with each other, allowing some of Tri-State’s business elite to make invaluable cross-industry contacts. The symposium began immediately following the networking session.

Topics addressed by the panelists included “Establishing Credibility in the Workplace,” “Winning at the Game of Office Politics,” “Perceptions of Assertive Women”, “Cross Cultural Leadership,” and “Hints to Maintain Your Value During Shaky Economic Times.” The discussions allowed attendees to gather a wealth of knowledge, experience, and expertise from top female executives, who shared the personal and professional challenges they faced in their careers.

The Tri-State Diversity Council would like to thank the sponsors and panelists in Connecticut, New York, and New Jersey for helping to make this year’s Women in Leadership Symposiums a rousing success.
