Inaugural Ohio Multicultural Roundtable Promotes Leadership and Development For Business Professionals

On September 2nd, 2015 the Ohio Diversity Council, in partnership with Wright State University, hosted the Inaugural Ohio Multicultural Leadership Roundtable at The Nutter Center in Fairborn, Ohio. The half-day event provided a platform for dialogue on leadership skills and professional development.

“The Inaugural Ohio Multicultural Roundtable offered an opportunity to observe, learn, network and hear different perspectives from a diverse mix of corporate executives who have made the climb up the corporate ladder,” said Dennis Kennedy, Founder and CEO of the National Diversity Council.

The event began with registration, breakfast and networking session, followed by the welcome delivered by Dr. Kimberly Barrett of Wright State University, and an introduction of the panelists & topics. The roundtable featured five topics, each focusing on building leadership competency. The topics addressed were, “Being Your Authentic Self,” “Top Leadership Competencies,” “Growing as a Leader,” “Cultivating Your Leadership Presence,” and “Building Your Authentic Self.” Question & answer sessions were also held at the event, promoting participation amongst the attendees.

The Ohio Diversity Council would like to thank the sponsors, speakers, and attendees for helping make the Inaugural Ohio Multicultural Roundtable a success.
