Business Executives Participate in 3rd Annual Massachusetts Women in Leadership Symposium

On March 22, 2016, the New England Diversity Council hosted their 3rd Annual Women in Leadership Symposium at Morgan, Lewis, & Bockius, LLP in Boston, Massachusetts. Attendees of the symposium gained knowledge and advice from corporate leaders who shared insight from their personal success and leadership experience as professionals.

“The topics discussed at this symposium get better every year,” said Dennis Kennedy, Founder and Chairman of the National Diversity Council. “Our speakers deliver forward thinking messages that inspire all of us to continue striving for success.”

The half-day event featured multiple business leaders from various organizations discussing topics such as “Branding: Becoming Visible and The Importance of Self” “Positioning Yourself for the Next Big Opportunity,” and “Becoming a Person of Influence.” The symposium began with a welcome from Joanne Foley, Co-Office Managing Partner at Morgan, Lewis & Bockius, LLP. Following a series of speeches presented by five featured panelists, audience members were given the opportunity to ask questions and share their thoughts on the discussion topics presented.

The New England Diversity Council would like to thank all the sponsors, speakers and attendees for helping to make this event a success.
